Anthem for November 29, 2026

Come Quickly, Lord Jesus

Music and Text: Mark Schweizer (1956–2019)

O come now Lord Jesus, our Dayspring, our Cheer,
And lift up our spirits by your Advent here.
The herald is calling, his cry we obey,
In deserts and valleys, "Prepare God a way."

O come, Root of Jesse, O come now and free
Your people, Your children, from death's tyranny.
The poor and the needy who suffer great wrong
Give strength and give justice and bid them be strong.

O come Key of David, our hearts open wide.
Our path, guard with safety and lead us on high.
Make straight what was crooked and rough places plain,
Make hard hearts be humble for God's holy reign.

Come quickly Lord Jesus, as dawn follows night,
Creator, Redeemer, the people's true light,
Let all things on earth and in heaven adore,
And own you as Savior and King evermore.

A native of Florida, Mark Schweizer received music degrees from Stetson University in Deland, Florida and the University of Arizona including a doctoral degree in vocal performance. He returned to teach at Stetson University from 1982 to 1985 followed by eight years on the music faculty of Louisiana College.

Mark lived in North Carolina where he served as editor of St. James Music Press. He was the author of thirteen "Liturgical Mystery" novels, as well as other books, and several opera and musical librettos. His published musical compositions can be found in the catalogs of Concordia Publishing House, H.T. Fitzsimmons, Lorenz, Selah Publishing, Musik Fabrik, and St. James Music Press.
