

Sunday, March 8, 2026

Announcements

Upcoming Events

Stay Tuned!

- Mar. 15 Presentation on the Holy Land (Larry Wolf and Harry Solloway)
Mar. 18 Dying, Death, and Bereavement: A Spiritual Exploration (Presented by Fr. Mathew)
Mar. 22 A Healthcare Talk on Stroke (Presented by Anu Mathew)

Remember the Dobbs Ferry Food Pantry

Please bring non-perishable items to the bins in the back of the sanctuary.

Easter Flowers Dedicated to Your Loved Ones

You'll be receiving a letter soon regarding dedicating an Easter lily to a loved one. Please consider helping to beautify our church and include names of those to whom your contribution is dedicated.

Serving Today

- Euch. Minister Sabina Gaston
Reader Pat Breinin
Zoom Operator Philip Gotthelf

Anthem for March 8, 2026

The Music of Stillness

Music: Elaine Hagenberg (b. 1979)

Text: Sara Teasdale (1884-1933)

There will be rest, and sure stars shining
Over the roof-tops crowned with snow,
A reign of rest, serene forgetting,
The music of stillness holy and low.
I will make this world of my devising
Out of a dream in my lonely mind.
I shall find the crystal of peace, - above me
Stars I shall find.

Elaine Hagenberg is an award-winning American composer whose choral music is celebrated for its lush harmonic landscapes and soaring melodies. Born in 1979, she earned a degree in Music Education from Drake University and has become one of the most prominent voices in contemporary choral music, with her works performed at major venues like Carnegie Hall and international festivals.

Sara Teasdale was a major American lyric poet known for her evocative, musical verse that explored themes of love, nature, and solitude. She achieved significant critical and commercial success, becoming the first person to win the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry (then called the Columbia University Poetry Society Prize) in 1918 for her collection Love Songs. In The Music of Stillness, she describes her journey from loneliness to hope through the hushed beauty of evening.

Anthem for March 8, 2026

The Music of Stillness

Music: Elaine Hagenberg (b. 1979)

Text: Sara Teasdale (1884–1933)

There will be rest, and sure stars shining
Over the roof-tops crowned with snow,
A reign of rest, serene forgetting,
The music of stillness holy and low.
I will make this world of my devising
Out of a dream in my lonely mind.
I shall find the crystal of peace, – above me
Stars I shall find.

Elaine Hagenberg is an award-winning American composer whose choral music is celebrated for its lush harmonic landscapes and soaring melodies. Born in 1979, she earned a degree in Music Education from Drake University and has become one of the most prominent voices in contemporary choral music, with her works performed at major venues like Carnegie Hall and international festivals.

Sara Teasdale was a major American lyric poet known for her evocative, musical verse that explored themes of love, nature, and solitude. She achieved significant critical and commercial success, becoming the first person to win the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry (then called the Columbia University Poetry Society Prize) in 1918 for her collection Love Songs. In The Music of Stillness, she describes her journey from loneliness to hope through the hushed beauty of evening.

