Anthem for April 12, 2026

This Joyful Eastertide

Music: Arlen Clarke, b. 1954
Text: Samuel Crossman (1624-1683)

*This joyful Eastertide,
 away with care and sadness!
 My Lord, the crucified,
 has filled this day with gladness*

*Death's waters cannot chill
 since Jesus crossed the river.
 His love will keep me still;
 his mercy is forever. [Refrain]*

*Refrain:
 Had Christ, who once was slain,
 not burst his three-day prison,
 our faith would be in vain.
 But now has Christ arisen.*

*Now let us all rejoice
 kept safe within God's keeping,
 until the trumpet voice
 shall call us from our sleeping.
 [Refrain]*

Evelyn Larter was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and studied at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music. She won the prestigious Governor's Recital Prize for piano, and graduated with honors in concert piano and music education. She performed with the Highlands Sinfonia, and on various programs on Scottish television. Since moving to the United States with her husband and family in 1988, Evelyn has been active in the Philadelphia area, performing with well-known soloists and ensembles. She was on the music staff of historic Tenth Presbyterian Church for 12 years, regularly substituting on the organ. Evelyn became Director of Music at Deerfield Presbyterian Church in southern New Jersey in September 2003, and has organized regular recitals with world class musicians. As a composer, Evelyn writes anthems for her own small church choir, and instrumental and vocal solo hymn arrangements. She also serves on the faculty of the Csehy Summer School of Music at Houghton College, NY State every year, teaching piano and composition.
