

Rev. Dr. Johnson Mathew is an ordained priest of the Mar Thoma Syrian Church, having faithfully served the Church for more than forty years. The Mar Thoma Church is a reformed church with its headquarters in India and diocesan offices in the United States, and it is in full communion with the Anglican Communion and the The Episcopal Church, serving a worldwide diaspora.

Fr. Johnson is married to Mrs. Reena Mathew, and they are blessed with three children, one daughter and two sons.

Following his retirement from active diocesan responsibilities, Rev. Dr. Johnson Mathew continues to serve the Church through pastoral ministry. He currently assists Mar Thoma congregations and, with a license to officiate, also serves within the Episcopal Church, celebrating the sacraments and providing pastoral and spiritual care to diverse communities.

Throughout his ministry, he has been committed to preaching the Gospel, administering the sacraments, nurturing faith communities, and offering compassionate pastoral care to people from all walks of life
