Next Week is Outreach Sunday: Feeding Westchester

Hunger lives here: in every Westchester County neighborhood

1 in 3 households in Westchester County are at risk of hunger — including children, seniors, and working families

Westchester County is known for its wealth, but the reality is more complex. Rising costs for housing, healthcare, and childcare are pushing more families to the edge. When budgets are tight, food is often the first thing to go — leaving too many of our neighbors without the nutrition they need to thrive.

Anthem for November 30, 2025
O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Music: Traditional, arr. By Francesca Battistelli, Ian Eskelin, and Tim Lauer

Text: John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel;
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell Thy people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.
Refrain

O come, Thou Day-Spring, come and cheer,
Our Spirits by Thine Advent here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Refrain

O come, O come, Emmanuel" (Latin: "Veni, veni, Emmanuel") is a Christian hymn for Advent, which is also often published in books of Christmas carols. The text was originally written in Latin. It is a metrical paraphrase of the O Antiphons, a series of plainchant antiphons attached to the Magnificat at Vespers over the final days before Christmas. The hymn has its origins over 1,200 years ago in monastic life in the 8th or 9th century.
